

Raw Material

Experience in the global textile raw material trading field for more than 50 years

Textile Raw Material business is one of the most powerful segment of ITOCHU with our global network around 30 bases. IPA is the Key station for trilateral trade & development.

100000
tons

ITOCHU deals enormous amount of textile fiber/yarns approximately 100,000 tons per year as a hub of global market.

30
bases

Under ITOCHU Group, IPA works with around 30 bases all over the world. The global network is the key for running IPA's textile material business rapidly and effectively.

50
years

IPA has been working in the raw material field for more than 50 years. Utilizing accumulated know-how and experience, IPA have been building successful businesses with our partners for mutual growth.

To provide various materials client needs and tailor-made services

We provide various type of textile raw material, such as from staple fibers, filaments, and spun yarn in cotton, synthetics, wool, viscose etc.

Now are days, ITOCHU/IPA are spending a lot of effort for developing Eco-friendly fibers and Special functional materials as ITOCHU's original such as One Cotton™ (Organic Cotton), Ice Cotton™ and Merino Optimo™, and various Recycled fibers.

Link to Itorium: <http://www.ito-rium.com/>

Furthermore, we are offering comprehensive proposals such as special-spinning, dyeing yarn arrangement, and also even logistics and financing in order to provide optimal value to our customers.